

Adjective Clauses 2

Grammar > Intermediate 6

Exercise 1 – Learning

As we learned in the last lesson, adjective clauses are used to identify and provide additional information about someone or something. Now, we will learn to use them to identify places, times, and reasons.

This lesson will focus on 'where', 'when' and 'why'.

Where

Use 'where' after the name of a place.

- This is the house where my dog lives.
- This is the spot where Sally always hides.

We can also use 'where' by itself.

- This is where my dog lives.
- This is where Sally always hides.

When

Use 'when' after the name of a time.

- The 21st is the day when I fly to China.
- Thursday is the day when we will meet them

We can omit the name of the time when it is clear from the context.

- The 21st is when I fly to China.
- Let's talk when I arrive at my hotel.

Why

Use 'why' after the reason.

- That's the reason why I love this city.
- This is the reason why we hang out.

We can use 'why' by itself, because people usually know you are referring to the reason.

- This is why I love New York.
- That's why I wanted to move here.
