

Strong Suggestions

Grammar > Intermediate 6

Exercise 1 – Learning

There are many ways to make suggestions in English. One of the most common and basic ways is to use 'let's' or 'should'.

'Let's' + verb

'Let's' is the most direct way to suggest doing something with someone. In fact, "Let's + verb" is sometimes considered an imperative.

Let's have a picnic!

Subject + 'should' + verb

'Should' is a modal verb like 'can' or 'will'. It does not change spelling to agree with the verb that follows.

Using 'should' is also a way to make a strong recommendation.

We should go to the park.

Tip: Since "s" in "let's" stands for 'us', "let's" can only be used to suggest doing something with another person. So to suggest that someone exercise more, you cannot say "Let's you exercise more." You need to say "You should exercise more."

Exercise 2 – Multiple Choice

Choose the correct answers to complete the sentences. There can be more than one correct answer

1. You _____ be quiet.

- a) should
- b) let's

2. It's getting late. We _____ go home now.

- a) should
- b) let's

3. She _____ come with us.

- a) should
- b) let's

4. It's getting late. _____ go home.

- a) We should
- b) Let's

5. I'll take out my map. _____ get lost.

- a) Let's not
- b) We should

6. If you want a job, _____ apply to this company.

- a) let's
- b) you should

7. _____ talk loudly! The baby is sleeping.

- a) We shouldn't
- b) Let's not

8. _____ go to this restaurant.

- a) We shouldn't
- b) Let's not

Exercise 3 – Sentence Construction

Use what you learned in class to create sentences with your tutor.

Example: go to a park. → Let's go to a park!/We should go to a park.

Content:

1. get drinks at a bar.
2. try a new restaurant.
3. watch some movies.
4. play a board game.
5. go to a concert.
6. go to the cafe nearby.