

“Like Better, Like Best,
Much More, More and More”

Grammar > Intermediate 6

Exercise 1 – Learning

Like better

To say that you like something more than something else, use the pattern:

'like [something] better than [something else]'

To ask what someone likes better, say:

"Which do you like better?"

- Which do you like better, baseball or basketball?
- I like baseball better.

Like best

To say that someone/something is your favorite person/thing, say that you 'like it/them best'.

To ask someone what their favorite person/thing is, say:

"Which do you like best?"

- Which sport do you like best?
- I like baseball best.

Much more

To intensify the comparison, add 'much' in front of the comparative word.

- You are much taller than Tom.
- You are much more active than Tom.

More and more

Double comparatives is the use of two comparative words separated by 'and'.

They describe gradual increases or decreases.

- You are growing taller and taller.
- Fewer and fewer students are going abroad to study.
