

Hot Weather

Conversation > Intermediate 6

Exercise 1 – Vocabulary

adjust	To change something slightly.
[verb]	Ex: It's really hard to adjust to the lifestyle people have here.

overcast	Cloudy and dark.
[adjective]	Ex: I really love it when the sky is overcast.

sunbathe	To sit or lie in the sun in order to get a tan.
[verb]	Ex: Those girls love sunbathing, they really enjoy the summer heat.

hydrated	Having absorbed enough water or other liquid.
[adjective]	Ex: Be sure to stay hydrated during the race.

heatstroke	A fever caused by being in a very hot place for too long.
[noun]	Ex: Heatstroke is quite common in the summer season.

Exercise 2 – Dialogue

Choose one character and read the dialogue aloud with your tutor.

David: Hi! It's been a long time since we last talked. How have you been?

Megan: I've been quite busy. I got a new job, so I'm still adjusting to the new environment.

David: What's the weather like in Miami these days? Has it been cloudy, windy, or humid?

Megan: It's summer, so it's quite hot here, David.

David: Damn, that's not ideal. Make sure to keep yourself hydrated all the time.

Megan: You don't like hot weather, do you?

David: No, I prefer rainy days. I actually like when it's overcast because it keeps things cool.

Megan: Summer is so much fun, though.

David: I don't know about that. Why would it be fun, Megan?

Megan: Going to the beach and sunbathing are incredibly enjoyable activities. Why do you dislike summer?

David: When I was a kid, I experienced heatstroke and it was awful.

Megan: Oh, now I understand. That's terrible.
